research area

I study medieval English poetry, especially the text, form, and language of William Langland's Piers Plowman and other Middle English alliterative verse. I also study literary education in the European Middle Ages, and the medieval and early modern reception of Boethius's Consolatio philosophiae. With James Eric Ensley I am producing a documentary edition of New Haven, Beinecke Library, Takamiya MS 23 for the Piers Plowman Electronic Archive. Other work in progress includes a study of the text and sources of John Walton's 1410 verse translation of Boethius's Consolatio and essays on 1. the language and meter of some Middle English lyrics; 2. the sources of George Colvile's 1556 translation of Boethius's Consolatio; 3. 'ecologies of Latin poetics'; 4. extra-diegetic address in Piers Plowman; and 5. the prosody of mixed-language lines in the same poem.
